THE DISPATOR

A DENATABLE QUESTION.—While much has been written concerning the use of "put-up" med-laines, the question is still an open one, and de-mands of the people a careful consideration. The, salient points may be briefly stated and answered as follows: 1st. Are the sick capable of determining their real condition, the nature of their malady. Personal .- Rev. Dr. D. B. Winfree was able to be out yesterday after a lengthy inthe to be out yesterday after a lengthy in-lisposition.

Officer James B. Fitzgerald is walking and selecting the proper remedy or means of cure?

2d. Can a physician, no matter how skilful, pre-pare a universal remedy, adapted to the peculiar allments of a large class of people residing in different latitudes and subject to various elimatic in-fluences?
